

PITTSBURGH FOUNDRY

Nos 10 & 12 Wood Street.

When ordering ROLLS, please state what depth of Chill you desire, whether Hard or Soft in Temper, and whether the Surface is to be Plain or Grooved.

Pittsburgh July 13th 1885

D. W. Fox Esq Supr. Mint of the U.S.

Philada Pa

Dr Sir

In answer to

Your favor of the 9th inst would say. that we believe the 10" Chilled Rolls referred to. furnished by us several years ago, and also recently through other parties are sufficiently strong enough to bear the increased strain. proposed to be put on them. by rolling larger ingots. especially so, if you will increase the number of passes now made in reducing the ingots from ~~seven~~ as stated in your letter to nine or ten. Passes. Any further information we can give you will be cheerfully supplied on application to

Yours truly

Alfarrison & Co

608 1/2

Pittsburg Pa
July 13/85

A. Garrison & Co.

The 10" chilled
rolls in the mills
are strong enough to break down
larger ingots;
Especially if the number of passes
be increased from 7 to 9.

July 13/85

RECEIVED
JUL 14 1885

[Abstract:] The 10" chilled rolls in the Mint... 608 ½

Office of the Pittsburgh Foundry
Pittsburgh
July 13, 1885

D.M. Fox, Esq. Supt. Mint of the U.S.
Philada. Pa.

Dr. Sir

In answer to your favor of the 9th inst. would say that we believe the 10" Chilled Rolls referred to, furnished by us several years ago, and also recently through other parties are sufficiently strong enough to bear the increased strain proposed to be put on them by rolling larger ingots, especially so, if you will increase the number passes now made in reducing the ingot from seven as stated in your letter to nine or ten passes. Any further information we can give you will be cheerfully supplied on applicant.

Yours truly,
A. Garrison & Co.